cop. 2

May, 1987

To the Class of 1987:

Greetings to a wonderful class and best wishes, as you leave Trinity, from all of us who remain behind!

We have enjoyed getting to know you and watching you learn and grow. We have learned from you, too, and are grateful for all you have done to make Trinity an even finer place. May you do the same in the future, no matter where you find yourselves.

I hope you will remember Trinity and revisit the campus frequently. It is your college, and you are now part of its large family.

Cordially,

James F. English, Jr.

Endpiece

Trinity College

February 1988

The 1987 yearbook does not begin to represent the class of 1987. The early part of the book covers only a small fraction of the college life. I will not apologize for this fact. For most of our senior year I operated without any real staff. Of the 36 people who eagerly signed up in the fall not one ever turned up to help. Apparently most people expect the yearbook to simply appear as someone else will always do it. The book has appeared though probably not in the form that most will appreciate. Hopefully suggested changes will be made in the yearbook process that will avoid some of the fiascos of the past. I would like to thank Lee Coffin of Trinity and Michael Alfano of Jostens as their help finally completed the yearbook in February of 1988.
